

Life Support Concession Application Form

The life support concession provides a daily discount to eligible account holders who use an approved life support device/s or who live with someone who uses such a device.

Who should complete this form

If you, or someone in your household, uses an approved life support device in your principal place of residence.

How much will my bills be discounted by?

The daily discount depends on the machine used in the property. For the current daily discount rates, please contact your electricity retailer.

Where do I find my NMI No.?

The National Metering Identifier (NMI) Number is used to link the electricity meter at your property to your electricity account. It is usually listed on your electricity bill. If you cannot find your NMI Number, you are still able to apply for the concession.

Where do I send my completed concession form?

You need to send your completed concession form to your preferred electricity retailer. Contact details for electricity retailers currently operating in Tasmania can be found on the Concessions page at www.sro.tas.gov.au.

What if my machine is not listed?

A concession is only available for the devices listed over the page. However, your retailer may want to know if there are other devices at the premises for the purposes of registering your address for life support protections in the electricity market. If your medical practitioner approves a machine for you that is not on the list, please contact your retailer with the details.
